At Canobolas our Home Economics Faculty can offer you:

- Courses in Textiles Technology, Food Technology, Child Studies, Community and Family Studies and Hospitality
- State of the art kitchen facilities including an industry standard commercial kitchen
- A fully functional textiles workshop featuring the latest in textiles technology
- The most up-to-date resources in Child Studies including a Real Care Baby and Pregnancy Profile
- The latest in classroom technology including Smart boards and projectors in every classroom
- Passionate and experienced teachers who have great knowledge of their subject area and really care about their students
- Opportunities to expand on your knowledge and captivate your interests through excursions, both in the local area and beyond
- Real life practical experiences in the Hospitality industry by participating in a range of functions as part of Canobolas’ Hospitality Team